IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

SECOND APPELLATE DISTRICT

DIVISION SIX

THE PEOPLE,

Plaintiff and Respondent,

v.

AARON ARNEZ JOHNSON,

Defendant and Appellant.

2d Crim. No. B249543
(Super. Ct. No. F482447)
(San Luis Obispo County)

Aaron Arnez Johnson appeals an order determining him to be a sexually violent predator (SVP) pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code section 6604, and committing him to the Department of Mental Health for an indeterminate term.

Johnson suffers from a psychotic disorder and mild mental retardation. In 1987, he committed sexually violent offenses upon three teenage female victims within a three-month period. (Pen. Code, § 207, subd. (a), 220, 261, subd. (2).) He was convicted in 1988 and sentenced to prison. His lengthy criminal history includes many violent acts while in custody. He committed serious rule violations including violence and threats of violence.

Johnson was scheduled for release on parole in 2012. The Department of Corrections referred him to the Department of Mental Health, which designated two mental health professions to evaluate him and determine whether he has a diagnosed mental health disorder such that he is likely to engage in acts of sexual violence without appropriate treatment and custody. (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 6601, subd. (c) & (d).) The evaluators concurred that Johnson is a SVP. The People filed a petition for civil commitment.

Johnson waived his right to a jury trial on the petition for civil commitment. He submitted on the evaluation reports of Siobahn Donovan, Ph.D. and Gangaw Zaw, Ph.D. The trial court found that he met all criteria for commitment.

We previously granted Johnson's application for relief from the late filing of his notice of appeal.

We appointed counsel to represent Johnson in this appeal. After counsel examined the record, he filed an opening brief raising no issues.

On October 30, 2013, we advised Johnson that he had 30 days within which to personally submit any contentions or issues that he wished to raise on appeal. We have not received a response.

We have reviewed the entire record and are satisfied that Johnson's attorney fully complied with his responsibilities and that no arguable issues exist. (People v. Wende (1979) 25 Cal.3d 436, 441.)

The order is affirmed.

NOT TO BE PUBLISHED.
